The mission of the Queens Council on the Arts is to foster and develop the arts in Queens County and to support arts organizations and individual artists in presenting their cultural diversity for the benefit of the community.

The 7 subway line, also known as "The International Express," is a National Millennium Trail.

The QAXapp was awarded a Rockefeller Foundation New York City Cultural Innovation Fund Grant.

Programs of the Queens Council on the Arts are made possible, in part, with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts, a state agency, and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, a city agency, Queens Borough President Helen M. Marshall, and the Queens Delegation to the NYC Council, NYS Assembly and NYS Senate.

Catch the Queens Art Express (QAX) and enjoy an annual spring arts festival that is packed with performances in public spaces in more than 50 venues throughout Queens.

A network of trains throughout northern and western Queens connects people from richly varied ethnicities and all walks of life. From Astoria to Flushing, a ride on the 7 or the NQR trains will take you through New York City's largest and most diverse borough. Underneath its elevated tracks, people from countries across the globe live side by side sharing cultures and cuisines, creating new American experiences.

Not sure where to start? Download the FREE QAXapp at your mobile app store, or visit queensartexpress.com for more inside information about the Queens Art Express and how to get a MetroCard Deal at a local restaurant, discover new neighborhoods, and enjoy great art.

In Astoria, check out a worldly vibe and wander the streets of a scene that includes outdoor cafes, eclectic visual and performing artists, and emerging art ensembles.

Long Island City is a world class cultural destination with local caché where you can discover small, quirky galleries, studios, and a thriving community of individual artists and artful businesses that populate the creative entertainment industries.

In Sunnyside and Woodside, a stroll along historic garden style homes on tree-lined streets will lead you through a world of exciting Spanish dance musicals, Latin American films, Mets fans, and your choice of pubs where you can reminisce about the Ramones.

Did you know that Jackson Heights is a restlessly creative artist scene that gathers in local cafes, poetry readings, and food and film festival events?

Corona is the Italian and Spanish word for "crown." It is home to Tiffany glass, legendary jazz greats Louis Armstrong and Dizzie Gillespie, filmmaker Martin Scorsese, and pop icon Madonna.

Flushing is not only the home of religious freedom, it is also an international artist community populated by emerging contemporary art galleries, beautiful botanical gardens, and the best dumpling houses in the city.

This is just the beginning. Discover Queens!
